Advanced Metaphors & Dreamwork

Consciousness Development Coaching with Advanced Metaphors!

This program is special. We offer this unique Coaching program only 1-2 times a year.

This course will become ICF Certified (CCE Certification 22 cce/7 core) and provide advanced credits for your future use (awaiting final verification from ICF).

It is also a program that offers you an advanced level in your personal coach training journey after the Art and Science of Coaching!

This 4 day program invites you to deeply discover your inner wisdom and journey of personal self discovery.

This course will tie together many of the most exciting solution focused advances in designing effective metaphors and stories.

It will help delineate and train course participants to experientially recognize some key landmarks and metaphors for different qualities of consciousness and awareness through which they and their clients may be passing.

Enhance the stories and metaphors you use with your coaching clients!!

Erickson International and Marilyn Atkinson are providing this program as a special energy break and opportunity to move yourself to the next level of your own development. Think of one of the most exciting journeys you have ever undertaken. We offer this in the form of an inner modeling journey.

Dreamwork & Advanced Metaphors is a program designed for persons who want to continue their own growth and inner exploration with other explorers, their clients and also within themselves.
